The Hopi Prophecy

By: Joseph White Eagle

I have always been interested in Native American cultures and traditions and recently a new client asked me if I have heard of the Hopi Prophecy and how it relates to the Pandemic - which I had not. It piqued my interest and I started to research to find out what this was all about. I thought given the current state of affairs of our world and country at the moment, I thought you may find it to be an interesting perspective!

“This moment humanity is going through can now be seen as a portal and as a hole. The decision to fall into the hole or go through the portal is up to you.”

“If you repent of the problem and consume the news 24 hours a day, with little energy, nervous all the time, with pessimism, you will fall into the hole. But if you take this opportunity to look at yourself, rethink life and death, take care of yourself and others, you will cross the portal. Take care of your homes, take care of your body. Connect with your spiritual House.”

“When you are taking care of yourselves, you are taking care of everything else. Do not lose the spiritual dimension of this crisis; have the eagle aspect from above and see the whole; see more broadly.”

"There is a social demand in this crisis, but there is a spiritual demand – the two go hand in hand. Without the social dimension, we fall into fanaticism. But without the spiritual dimension, we fall into pessimism and lack of meaning. You were prepared to go through this crisis. Take your toolbox and use all the tools available to you."

"Learn about resistance of the indigenous and African peoples; we have always been, and continue to be, exterminated. But we still haven't stopped singing, dancing, lighting a fire, and having fun. Don't feel guilty about being happy during this difficult time."

"You do not help at all being sad and without energy. You help if good things emanate from the universe now. It is through joy that one resists. When the storm passes, each of you will be very important in the reconstruction of this new world."

"You need to be well and strong. And for that, there is no other way than to maintain a beautiful, happy, and bright vibration. This has nothing to do with alienation."

"This is a resistance strategy. In shamanism, there is a rite of passage called the quest for vision. You spend a few days alone in the forest, without water, without food, without protection. When you cross this portal, you get a new vision of the world, because you have faced your fears, your difficulties."

"The following is what is asked of you: "Allow yourself to take advantage of this time to perform your vision-seeking rituals. What world do you want to build for you? For now, this is what you can do: Serenity in the storm. Calm down, pray every day. Establish a routine to meet the sacred every day."

"Good things emanate; what you emanate now is the most important thing. And sing, dance, resist through art, joy, faith, and love."

When the earth is ravaged and the animals are dying, a new tribe of people shall come unto the earth from many colors, creeds and classes, and who by these actions and deeds shall make the earth green again. They shall be known as the "Warriors of the Rainbow."

Featured Business Spotlight

Soham Yoga is a repeat featured business in Frequency Friday. Yani - the Founder is coming up with new classes, workshops and events to share her passion of yoga with others.

On March 1st - March 2nd, from 6 PM 3/1-6 AM 3/2, Yani is hosting Mahashivratri - A Night of Awakening at her studio located at: SOHAM YOGA | 543 N State Road 7, Suite 109, Royal Palm Beach Florida 33411. Yani's description of this event is as follows:

Mahashivratri is an opportunity and a possibility to bring yourself to that experience of the vast emptiness within every human being, which is the source of all creation. On the one hand, Shiva is known as the destroyer. On the other, he is known as the most compassionate. He is also known to be the greatest of the givers. The yogic lore is rife with many stories about Shiva's compassion. The ways of expression of his compassion have been incredible and astonishing at the same time. So Mahashivratri is a special night for receiving too. It is our wish and blessing that you must not pass this night without knowing at least a moment of the vastness of this emptiness that we call as Shiva.

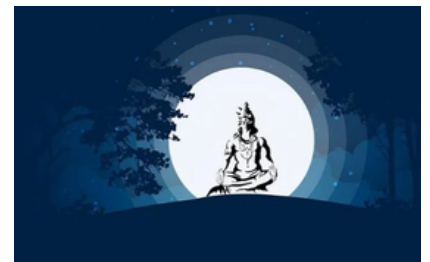

Let this night not just be a night of wakefulness, let this night be a night of awakening for you.

Get Your Cosmic Mojo On As Above So Below: Affirming and Finding Stability in Tumultuous Times

There are currently two very majorly disruptive cosmic (heavenly) influenced universal themes and one very major US focused disruptive cosmic theme. These have and will continue to dominate our life experiences in the year 2022.

Universal Theme 1

Jupiter, the planet of expansion, meets up (conjoints) with Neptune, the planet of spirituality and/or confusion.

This theme can potentially translate into 1. People feeling a collective need to find comfort through expanding their spiritual understanding of what is happening in life. 2. People feeling an expanded collective sense of being overwhelmed by confusion about the meaning of life. And 3. perhaps the most challenging and most likely of the options is for masses of people to experience both of the above impacts. This is possible because 1. and 2. are not mutually exclusive.

Universal Theme 2

Uranus (the unexpected) challenges Saturn (structure)

This can translate into disruption of life and business as usual.

The US Cosmic Theme

Pluto, the planet of power and the Lord of the Underworld, a planet that takes 246 - 247 years to orbit the Sun, is returning to the same place it was in the heavens on July 4, 1776. This was an exact match on 2/20/2022 and it will, because Pluto will retrograde, now continue to be in play all year.

This can translate into the US being compelled to take on-going and diverse revolutionary actions to preserve its well-being

World Events, the US and You

I am writing on day one of the invasion in the Ukraine. My summary cosmic world and US analysis in three short paragraphs is, of course, a gross over simplification of a very complex set of circumstances. My goal is to inspire you to, even if you think you are able to live life as if it is life as usual, to mobilize special attention into being self-comforting. Overwhelm can be devastating. Given there has been so much disruption over the past couple of years the nerves of masses of people are already frayed. A mounting collective sense of overwhelm is not unrealistic. I suggest you consciously choose to focus on "Overwhelm Prevention".

Overwhelm Prevention/Stability Enhancement

Some among US citizens, may believe that because the affairs of Europe are very far away that we will not be impacted. Hmmm. First, it seems rather self-evident that gas prices will swiftly go up. Then, however, unfortunately, in my worldview, it will be more far reaching. From a cosmic perspective, the US is in the midst of a high intensity point of the Pluto Return. Pluto is the planet of power. The war in the Ukraine is a power struggle. It is not clear what our involvement will be and as Neptune is involved there is reason to believe there will bring confusion. It may take much time for the dust to settle but from a cosmic perspective it is likely there will be significant far-reaching impactful consequences for the US. Consequently, I recommend you start immediately to be proactive in upgrading your self-care.

The following are a few Overwhelm Prevention options. I welcome any and all suggestions to add to this list. Please feel free to me e-mail (Hattie@hattieParker.com) me your thoughts

1. Consistently choose to visualize yourself surrounded by white peaceful light.
1. .When faced with rising gas prices or other inconveniences created by this situation calm yourself saying, "The Universe is in perfect order. I (we, my family & friends) will be OK."
1. On March 2 there is a New Moon in Pisces. New Moons are auspicious times for planting seeds of new thoughts. You might find and extend comfort by choosing to be metaphorically planting a seed of love and light for the people of the Ukraine..
