How you see the world determines the world that you see. Do you see abundance or scarcity?

Do you believe that if someone has a lot it means there's not enough for you? Do you focus on getting your piece of the pie or believe that you can make the pie bigger so everyone can enjoy more? Do you focus only on yourself or do you help others grow? Do you celebrate the success of others or envy them?

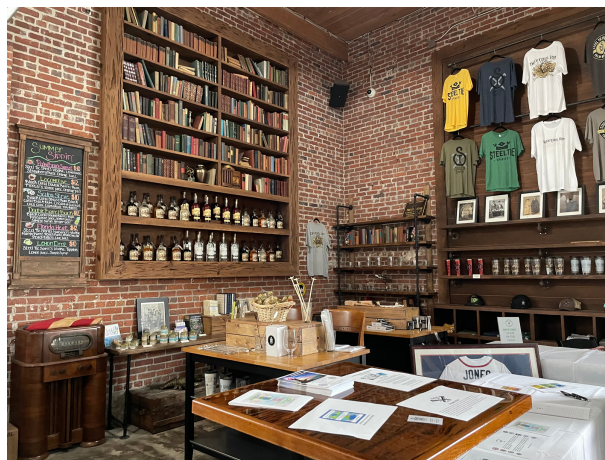

There is more than enough for everyone. I've found the more I help others grow, I grow. We live in a big universe. There are trillions of dollars available to you and your next business idea, billions of people to connect with, an infinite amount of ideas to implement and an endless supply of energy. So why do so many expect so little? There's more than enough for everyone and there's more than enough for you.

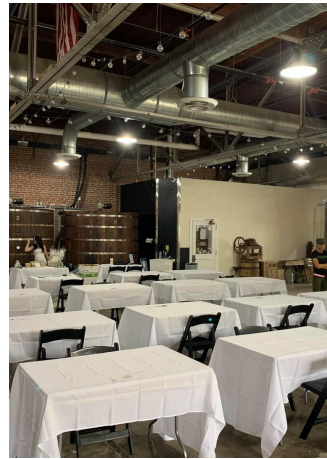

Stop thinking small. Think big. Have an abundance mindset. Take bold actions and create an abundant life.

A Lunar Eclipse in the Sign of Taurus*

*Taurus: The sign that has everything to do with love and money.

Late 2021 and Early 2022

For the next several months there are many momentous astronomical events coming our way. In this column I plan to focus on sharing about these events. I will include advice on how to cope and make the most of the energies these events inspire. And, however, please be aware that this is not an easy task because at least some of these astro-events are heavenly happenings that no one alive has ever lived through. Thus, there is at least some element of mystery surrounding them. Should you have noteworthy happenings in your life that you perceive to be related to star inspired events I invite you to share them with me (Hattie@hattieparker.com) I will share (anonymously or not – your call) insights with others in this community so we can benefit from real life examples.

The Current Eclipse

Today's lunar eclipse is an event that no one on earth has lived through because it is the longest in duration of any eclipse of the century. This means its influence will last longer than any eclipse we have experienced in our lifetimes. And because of the compounding effect of astronomical happenings it will be operative as we live through many of the other momentous coming astro-events.

Eclipses in General

Eclipses are known to be astrological wild cards that herald times of learning through experiencing life-changing events. The life changing events can be wonderful i.e., an engagement (a positive expression of the love influence of Taurus) or devastating such a decision to file bankruptcy (a negative expression of the money influence of Taurus).

Astro-Advice

This eclipse lasts for 6 hours plus. Thus its influence can be expected to last for over 6 months. I recommend that you commit to making a conscious effort to be flexible and resilient. Take time to, from the sincere depths of your heart, assure yourself that you have an infinite capacity to go with the flow. If life brings you abundance and wonder be grateful. If life takes a turn in a direction you would prefer it to have not taken choose to "ride the horse the direction it is going." Adopt an attitude that life is an adventure. Focus on an awareness that you never know where your good is coming from or how it will be delivered.
